HOME SECRETARIAT

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, dated 30th August 1971.

G. S. R. 309. —In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 3 of the maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971 (Central Act 26 of 1971), the Government of Mysore hereby makes the following order, namely :—

1. Title and extent:—(1) This order may be called the maintenance of Internal Security (Conditions of Detention) (Mysore) Order, 1971.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of the State of Mysore.

2. Definitions.—In this order, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Act" means the Maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971 (Central Act 26 of 1971) ;

(b) "Detaining Authority" means the Government where the order of detention is made by it or any officer specified in sub-section (2) of Section 3 of the Act ;

(c) "Security Prisoner" means a person in respect of whom an order of detention is made by the detaining authority under the Act;

(d) "District Surgeon" means the District Surgeon of the district in which the security prisoner is detained ;

(e) "Government" means the State Government ;

(f) 'Superintendent" means—

(i) in the case of a security prisoner detained in a police lockup, in Bangalore City, the Deputy Commissioner of Police, and in other places the Superintendent of Police, having jurisdiction over the area in which the police lockup is located ; and

(ii) in the case of a security prisoner detained in a prison, jail. sub-jail, lock-up or other place, the person in-charge of such prison, jail, sub-jail, lock-up or other place in which the security prisoner is detained ;

(g) "Section" means section of the Act.

3. Place of detention:—(1) A security prisoner shall be detained in any police lock-up, jail or prison as specified in the Annexure to this order or such other place as the Government may, by means of a written order, specify in the district within whose limits such prisoner has his ordinary place of residence :

Provided that Government may, in any case, direct that any security prisoner may be detained in jail, prison, lock-up or other place outside such district.

(2) The Government may, subject to the proviso to section 5, at any time by order in writing, transfer a security prisoner from one place of detention to another place of detention either within the State or outside the State, as may be specified in the order.

4. Classification.—(1) The security prisoners shall be divided into two classes, namely, Class-"A" and Class-"B". The detaining authority shall, at the time of ordering detention, assign to any security prisoner Class "A" or Class 'B" having regard the state of health, education, status and mode of living of such security prisoner prior to detention.

(2) A security prisoner detained in a police lock-up shall be treated in the same manner as an undertrial prisoner.

5. Accommodation. (1) As far as may be possible security prisoners shall be provided with accommodation in the place of detention separated from the other prisoners and security prisoners of the same class may be accommodated in the same dormitary or enclosure.

(2) Security prisoners may, if there are reasons to believe that escape may be attempted, be locked up at night.

(3) Security prisoners may, ordinarily, be allowed to mix freely with other security prisoners detained in the same enclosure; but the Superintendent may, if, in his opinion it is desirable to do so on grounds of health or for any other reason, not allow this and confine any security prisoner.

6. Furniture.—Class "A" security prisoners shall be provided, at Government cost, with a canvas easy chair, a sitting chair, a cot, a mattress, a small table, a small almirah, a cloth stand, and a commode with pan. Lights shall be provided at nights till 10 P.M.

7. Clothing and Bedding.—(1) All security prisoners shall be allowed to use their own cloths and bedding. The Superintendent, may, in his discretion, permit the supply of extra clothes and bedding by the friends and/or relatives of any security prisoners or at the expense of the security prisoner. Where any security prisoner has not sufficient clothing of his own and has neither funds to buy it, nor friends and/or relatives to supply it, he may be supplied at Government cost with clothing and bedding as in the following table.

(6) When a security prisoner is released and there are no means of conveyance such as railway, steamer or bus available to him/her, he/she shall be given a composite allowance at the following rates for each fifteen miles or fractions thereof.

Class "A" Security Prisoner.— Rs. 1-25

Class "B" Security Prisoner.—Rs. 1-00

(7) When a security prisoner is transferred to another place of detention, whether within the State or in another State or removed to Delhi in connection with the hearing of a petition made by him/her to the Supreme Court of India and the journey to be performed by railway, steamer or bus is of a duration of twelve hours or more he/she shall be paid,

(i) diet allowance for each twelve hours or fraction thereof at the rate of three rupees if he/she is a Class-"A" security prisoner, and two rupees if he/she is a Class-"B" security prisoner;

(ii) luggage charges at the rate of fifty paise per journey.

30. Family Allowance.—(1) On the application of a security prisoner, the Government may grant a family allowance for the maintenance of his/her family if it is satisfied, on making such enquiries as may be considered necessary, that the dentention has substantially affected the means of subsistence of the security prisoner's family.

(2) Such family allowance shall not be less than fifty rupees and not more than one hundred rupees per month to the family of each security prisoner from such date as may be specified in the order:

Provided that the Government may, at any time for reasons to be recorded in writing, revoke or modify such order.

(3) The family allowance sanctioned under this clause shall be disbursed to such member of the family as may be nominated by the security prisoner.

Explanation:—For purposes of this clause, "family" means the wife or husband, parents, children, including adopted children or step children, unmarried sisters, minor brothers or any other relative residing with and wholly dependent on the security prisoner.

(4) Every application for family allowance by a security prisoner must indicate the number and nature of dependents of the security prisoner and state clearly all sources of income available for their subsistence both before and after the detention of the security prisoner.

31. Visits.—The Deputy Commissioner of the District shall, if he considers necessary, visit the security prisoners in jails within his district at least once a month and submit a report to the Government on the security prisoner's health, general bearing and comfort.

32. Miscellaneous.—All particulars relating to security prisoners shall be entered in a separate register (with serial numbers) and statistical returns relating to them shall be submitted as far as may be on the lines of Jail returns.

33. Relaxation of provisions.—Government may, by order in writing, relax all or any of these provisions or issue special orders in the case of any security prisoner or place of detention.
